

From: Glenn Sokol
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/02 9:21am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I believe that the current Microsoft anti-trust settlement is ineffective. Microsoft should have to conform to standard file extensions, so that all programs on all operating systems can read a particular file. I also believe that Microsoft should release many of its programs (games, office applications, desktop applications) for other operating systems (not just Macintosh). I hope the Department of Justice recognizes the voices of the public and takes heed to the suggestions.

Glenn Sokol

SGI
Co-op
gsokol@sgi.com
Work: 212.370.8640
Cell: 203.895.5289
